

DATA PROTECTION ACT, 2013

Arrangement of Sections

Sections

PART I – PRELIMINARY

1. Citation and commencement
2. Interpretation
3. Application of the Act
4. Exemptions
5. Sector specific legislation

PART II – DATA PROTECTION COMMISSION

6. Establishment of the Data Protection Commission
7. Disqualification from office
8. Functions of the Commission
9. Tenure of office
10. Allowances of the members of the Commission
11. Funds of the Commission
12. Audit of Accounts
13. Protection of the Commission
14. Duty of confidentiality

PART III- PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

15. Processing of personal information
16. Minimality
17. Collection directly from the data subject
18. Purpose specification and further processing limitation
19. Retention of records
20. Security measures on integrity of personal information
21. Information processed by an data processor of the data controller
22. Security measures regarding information processed by an data processor
23. Notification of security compromises
24. Quality of information
25. Notification to the Commission and to the data subject
26. Access to and challenges of personal information
27. Correction of personal information
28. Data controller to give effect to principles
29. Prohibition on processing of sensitive personal information

PART IV –EXEMPTIONS FROM PROTECTION ON PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

30. Exemption on data subject's spiritual, religious or philosophical beliefs
31. Exemption on data subject's race
32. Exemption on data subject's trade union membership
33. Exemption on data subject's political affiliation
34. Exemption on data subject's health or sexual life
35. Exemption on data subject's criminal behaviour
36. General exemption on sensitive personal information

- 37. Authorisation by Commission
- 38. Exemption for processing of personal data for historical, statistical and research purposes

PART V – ENFORCEMENT

- 39. Complaints
- 40. Investigation by the Commission
- 41. No action by the Commission
- 42. Pre-investigations by the Commission
- 43. Investigation proceedings by the Commission
- 44. Matters exempt from search and seizure
- 45. Parties to be informed of developments during and as a result of the investigation
- 46. Enforcement notice
- 47. Cancellation of an enforcement notice
- 48. Reviews and appeals
- 49. Civil remedies

PART VI – GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 50. Unsolicited electronic communications
- 51. Automated decision making
- 52. Transfer of personal information outside Lesotho
- 53. Notifications
- 54. Codes of Conduct
- 55. Offences and penalties

- 56. Regulations
- 57. Transitional arrangements

PART VII – GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 58. Appointment of DPO
- 59. Pursue legal appeals with the relevant judicial authorities
- 60. Class Actions
- 61. Other Sanctions
- 62. Whistleblowing

PART VIII

TRANSBORDER FLOW OF PERSONAL INFORMATION OUTSIDE LESOTHO

- 63. To a recipient in a Member State that has transposed the SADC data protection requirements
- 64. To a Member state that has not transposed the SADC data protection requirements or to a non-Member State

ACT NO. OF 2013

DATA PROTECTION ACT, 2013

An Act to establish the Data Protection Commission, provide for principles for regulation of processing of personal information in order to protect and reconcile the fundamental and competing values of personal information privacy under this Act and sector-specific legislation and other related matters.

Enacted by the Parliament of Lesotho

PART I – PRELIMINARY

Citation and Commencement

1	This Act may be cited as the Data Protection Act, 2013 and shall come into operation on the date of publication in the Gazette.
---	---

Interpretation

2	In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires – “automatic calling machine” means a machine that is able to do automated calls without human intervention; “biometric” means a technique of personal identification that is based on physical characteristics including fingerprinting, DNA analysis, retinal scanning voice recognition;
---	--

“child” means a natural person under the age of 18 years;

“code of conduct” refers to the data-use charters drafted by the data controller in order to institute the rightful use of IT resources, the Internet, and electronic communications of the structure concerned, and which have been approved by the Commissioner and includes industry codes of conduct applicable to the data controller and approved by the Commissioner.

“Commission” means the Data Protection Commission established under this law;

“Constitution” means the Constitution of Lesotho of 1993 as amended;

“data” refers to all representations of information notwithstanding format or medium.

“data controller” means a public or private body or any other person which or who, alone or together with others, determines the purpose of and means for processing personal information, regardless of whether or not such data is processed by that party or by an data processor on its behalf, where the purpose and means of processing are determined by or by virtue of an act, decree or ordinance, the controller is the natural person, legal person or public body has been designated as such by or by virtue of that act, decree or ordinance;

“data processor” refers to a natural person, legal person, or public body which processes personal information for and on behalf of the controller and under the data controller’s instruction, except for the persons who, under the direct authority of the controller, are authorised to process the data;

“data protection officer” or “DPO” refers to any individual appointed by the data controller charged with ensuring, in an independent manner, compliance with the obligations provided for in this law; “data controller's representative” or

“controller's representative”: refers to any natural person, legal person or public

body permanently established on the territory [of the concerned country], who takes the place of the data controller in the accomplishment of the obligations set forth in this law;

“data subject” refers to any individual who is the subject of the processing of personal information and who is identified or identifiable;

“de-identify” in relation to personal information of a data subject, means to delete any information that -

- (a) Identifies the data subject;
- (b) Can be used or manipulated by a reasonably foreseeable method to identify the data subject; and
- (c) Can be linked by a reasonably foreseeable method to other information that identifies the data subject;

“electronic mail” or “email” means any text, voice, sound or image message which is sent over a public communications network and can be stored in the network or in the recipient’s terminal equipment until it is collected by the recipient;

“enforcement notice” means a notice issued under section 46;

“explicit consent” means any voluntary, specific and informed consent communicated expressly by spoken or written word in terms of which a data subject agrees to the processing of personal information relating to a data subject;

“filing system” means a set or collection of personal data records, structured either by reference to individuals or criteria relating to individuals, in a way that specific information relating to a particular individual is readily accessible;

“identifiable person” is an individual who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identification number or to one or more factors specific to his/her physical, physiological, mental, economic, cultural or social identity. To determine whether a person is identifiable, account should be taken of all the means reasonably likely to be used either by the controller or by any other person to identify the said person.

“implicit consent” means consent that is inferred from signs, actions or facts, or by inaction or silence;

“information matching programme” means the comparison, whether manually or by means of any electronic or other device, of a document that contains personal information about ten or more data subjects with one or more documents with one or more documents that contain personal information about ten or more data subjects, for the purpose of producing or verifying information that may be used for the purpose of taking any action in regard to an identifiable data subject;

“member” means the member of Commission established under section 6;

“Minister” means the minister responsible for Home Affairs, Public Safety and of Parliamentary Affairs;

“opt-in consent” means express consent, that is, where the data subject expressly agrees to something;

“opt-out consent” means implied consent, that is, where the data subject is deemed to have consented to something;

personal data or information” means information about an identifiable individual that is recorded in any form, including, without restricting the generality of the foregoing

(a) information relating to the race, national or ethnic origin, religion, age or marital status of the individual;

- (b) information relating to the education or the medical, criminal or employment history of the individual or information relating to financial transactions in which the individual has been involved;
- (c) any identifying number, symbol or other particular assigned to the individual;
- (d) the address, fingerprints or blood type of the individual;
- (e) the name of the individual where it appears with other personal information relating to the individual or where the disclosure of the name itself would reveal information about the individual;
- (f) correspondence sent to a data controller by the individual that is explicitly or implicitly of a private or confidential nature, and replies to such correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence; and
- (g) the views or opinions of any other person about the individual.

“prescribed” means prescribed by the Regulations;

“private body” means a natural persona or juristic person who or which carries of has carried on any trade, business or profession but only in that capacity;

“processing” means an operation or activity or any set of operations, whether or not by automatic means relating to –

- (a) The collection, receipt, recording, organisation, collation, storage, updating or modification, retrieval, alteration, consultation or use;
- (b) Dissemination by means of transmission, distribution or making available in any other form; or
- (c) Merging, linking, as well as blocking, degradation, erasure, or destruction, of information;

“professional legal adviser” means any legally qualified person, whether in private practice or not, who lawfully provides a client, at his or her or its request, with independent, confidential legal advice;

“public body” means

(a) Any department of state or administration in the national sphere of government or any council in the local sphere of government; or

(b) Any other functionary or institution when –

(i) exercising a power or performing a duty in terms of the Constitution; or

(ii) exercising a public power or performing a public function in terms of any legislation;

“public communications network” means an electronic communications network used wholly or mainly for the provision of publicly available electronic communications services;

“public record” means a record that is accessible in the public domain and which is in the possession of or under the control of a public body, whether or not it was created by that public body;

“record” means any recorded information –

(a) regardless of form or medium, including the following –

(i) writing on any material;

(ii) information produced, recorded or stored by means of any tape-recorder, computer equipment, whether hardware or software or both, or other device, and any material subsequently derived from information so-produced, recorded or stored;

(iii) label, marking or other writing that identifies or describes anything of which it forms part, or to which it is attached by any means;

(iv) book, map, plan, graph or drawing; or

(v) photograph, film, negative, tape, or other device in which one or more visual images are embodied so as to be capable, with or without the aid of some other equipment, of being reproduced;

(b) in the possession or under the control of a data controller;

(c) whether or not it was created by the data controller; and

(d) regardless of when it came into existence;

“re-identify” in relation to personal information of a data subject, means to resurrect any information that has been de-identified, that –

(a) identifies the data subject;

(b) can be used or manipulated by a reasonably foreseeable method to identify the data subject; or

(c) can be linked by a reasonably foreseeable method to other information that identifies the data subject.

“sensitive personal information” (a) refers to genetic data, data related to children, data related to offences, criminal sentences or security measure, biometric data as well as, if they are processed for what they reveal, personal information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, affiliation, trade-union membership, gender and data concerning health or sex life

(b) refers also to any personal information otherwise considered by Lesotho law as presenting a major risk to the rights and interests of the data subject, in particular

	unlawful or arbitrary discrimination; “transborder flow” refers to any international, cross border flows of personal information by means of electronic transmission; “whistleblowing” refers to Lesotho legal procedure allowing individuals to report the behaviour of a member of their employer which, they consider contrary to a law or regulation or fundamental rules established by such employer;
--	--

Application of the Act

3	(1) This Act applies to a data controller – (a) domiciled or having its principal place of business in Lesotho; or (b) not domiciled or does not have its principal place of business in Lesotho and – (i) uses automated or non-automated means in Lesotho; or (ii) the automated or non-automated means are only used for forwarding personal information. (2) This Act is applicable to any processing of personal information performed wholly or partly by automated means.
---	--

Exemptions

4	This Act does not apply to the processing of personal information – (a) in the course of a purely personal or household activity’ (b) which has been de-identified to the extent that it cannot be re-identified; or
---	---

	(c) by or on behalf of the State and involved national security and defence or public safety; (d) solely for journalistic purposes or the purposes of artistic or literary expression only if they are necessary to reconcile the right to privacy with the rules governing freedom of expression; or (e) which has been exempted under this Act.
--	--

Sector specific legislation

5	(1) This Act does not affect the operation of any other sector specific legislation which regulates the processing of personal information and is capable of operating concurrently with this Act. (2) Where the sector specific legislation provides for the protection of personal information and such safeguards are more extensive than those set out under this Act, the extensive safeguards shall prevail.
---	--

PART II – DATA PROTECTION COMMISSION

Establishment of the Data Protection Commission

6	(1) An independent and administrative authority, the Data Protection Commission shall be established to have oversight and control over this law and the respective rights of information privacy provided for in this law. (2) The Commission shall be established in a manner permissive to a decision-making power independent of any direct or indirect external influence on the Commission.
---	---

	(3) The Data Protection Commission which shall consist of a chairperson with legal and data protection and privacy expertise and five other members with expertise in law, privacy, social sector, business, information technology, finance and statistics as appropriate to the member's functions (4) The Commission shall include substitute members with the same distribution of professional backgrounds who will replace a permanent member when he/she is excused, absent or when his/her mandate becomes vacant. (5) Members shall be appointed by the Prime Minister on the advice of the Minister. (6) Before members are appointed, the Minister shall invite interested parties through the media and by notice published in the Gazette to propose candidates within 30 days of the publication of such notice.
--	--

Disqualification from office

7	A person shall not be appointed as a member if the person – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Is a member of Parliament; (b) Is a councillor of a local authority; (c) Is an unrehabilitated insolvent; (d) Has been convicted of <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) An offence under this Act; (ii) A crime involving dishonesty or (iii) A crime and sentenced to custodial sentence of more than 5 years.
---	--

Functions of the Commission

8	(1) The powers and duties of the Commission are to – <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) promote by education and public awareness, an understanding and acceptance of information protection principles;(b) make public statements in relation to any matter affecting protection of personal information of a data subject or of any class or data subjects;(c) monitor and enforce compliance with the provisions of this Act by public and private bodies;(d) undertake research into, and monitor developments in information processing and computer technology to ensure that any adverse effects of such developments on protection of personal information of data subjects are minimised and report to the Minister the results of such research and monitoring;(e) examine any proposed policy or legislation which may affect the protection of personal information of data subjects, and report to the Minister the results of that examination;(f) report, with or without request, to Parliament from time to time on any matter affecting the protection of personal information of a data subject, including the need for, or desirability of, taking legislative, administrative, or other action to give protection or better protection to personal information of a data subject;(g) conduct an audit of personal information maintained by a data controller for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the information is maintained according to the information protection principles;
---	---

- | | |
|--|--|
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none">(h) monitor the use of unique identifiers of data subjects, and report to Parliament from time to time on the results of that monitoring;(i) maintain, publish and provide copies of registers as required under the Act;(j) receive and invite representations from members of the public on any matter provided for under this Act;(k) consult and cooperate with other persons and bodies including international data protection authorities concerned with the protection of personal information;(l) participate in any international and regional cooperation and negotiation on matters of data protection impacting Lesotho;(m) advise the Minister or a public or private body on their obligations under this Act;(n) receive, investigate and resolve complaints through mediation and reconciliation on alleged violations of the provisions of this Act, and report the findings and decisions to the complainants;(o) Report to Parliament from time to time on the desirability of the acceptance, by Lesotho, of any international instrument relating to the protection of personal information of a data subject;(p) Issue, approve, amend or revoke codes of conduct;(q) Make guidelines to assist public or private bodies to develop codes of conduct or to apply codes of conduct;(r) pronounce administrative sanctions such as the cancelling of the authorization of processing, fines or awarding of damages to the benefit of the injured data subject in the case of violation of the provisions of this law;(s) establish mechanisms of cooperation with other commissions or |
|--|--|

	other data protection authorities from other countries, primarily to resolve arising cross-border disputes pertaining to data protection and particularly information privacy; (t) Review a decision made under an approved code(s) of conduct; and (u) Exercise and perform such other functions or powers as conferred to it under this Act. (2) The Commission may, from time to time, in the public interest or in the legitimate interests of any person or body of persons, publish reports relating generally to the exercise of the Commission’s functions under this Act or to any case investigated by the Commission, whether or not the matters to be dealt with in any report have been the subject of a report to the Minister. (3) For the purposes of this section, “time-to-time” means quarterly from the 1st of April each year.
--	---

Tenure of office

9	A member shall – (a) Hold office for 5 years from the date of appointment unless – (i) The member resigns; or (ii) The appointment is terminated by the Prime Minister after the member has been afforded an opportunity to make representations; or (b) Vacate office for inability to perform the functions of the Commission under this Act, whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or for misconduct
---	--

Allowances of the members of the Commission

10.	A member of the Commission shall be paid such allowances as the Minister may, in consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, determine.
-----	---

Funds of the Commission

11.	(1) The Funds of the Commission shall comprise of such amounts as shall be appropriated by Parliament from the Consolidated Fund. (2) The Commission shall use the funds allocated under subsection (1) to carry out its functions as stipulated under this Act.
-----	--

Audit of Accounts

12.	(1) The Commission shall submit, to the Minister, a budget for its annual operations, not less than 6 months before the end of each financial year, which shall end on the 31st of March. (2) The Commission shall, within 3 months after the end of each financial year, prepare a financial statement which reflects – <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) The income and expenditure of the Commission during the preceding financial year; and(b) A balance sheet showing the state of its assets, liabilities and financial position as at the end of that financial year, (3) The Auditor-General shall audit the Commission's financial records each year.
-----	--

	(4) The Commission shall, within 6 months after the end of the financial year, submit the financial statement and audit report to the Minister for submission to Parliament.
--	---

Protection of the Commission

13	The Commission or any person acting on behalf of or under the direction of the Commission shall not be civilly or criminally liable for anything done in good faith in the exercise or performance or purported exercise of performance of any power, duty or function of the Commission in terms of this Act.
----	---

Duty of Confidentiality

14	A person acting on behalf of or under the direction of the Commission shall treat, as confidential, personal information which comes to his knowledge, except if the communication of such information is required by law or in the proper performance of his duties.
----	--

Processing of personal information

15	(1) The processing of personal information shall be automated, processed and kept in – <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) a filing cabinet; and(b) electronic form.
----	--

	(2) Personal information shall be processed if – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The data subject provides explicit consent to the processing; (b) Processing is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract to which the data subject is a party; (c) Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the data controller is subject; (d) Processing is necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the data subject; (e) Processing is necessary for the proper performance of public law duty by a public body; or (f) Processing is necessary for pursuing the legitimate interests of the data controller or of a third party to whom the information is supplied. (3) A data subject, may, on compelling legitimate grounds, raise a written objection to the processing of data relating to him on the grounds listed in subsection (1) with the Commission, and where the objection is upheld by the Commission, the data controller shall not process the data.
--	--

Minimality

16	Personal information may only be processed if, given the purpose for which it is processed, it is adequate, relevant and not excessive.
----	---

Collection directly from the data subject

17	(1) A person shall collect personal information directly from the data subject, except where – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The information is contained in a public record or has deliberately been made public by the data subject; (b) The data subject has consented to the collection of the information from another source; (c) Collection of the information from another source would not prejudice a legitimate interest of the data subject; (d) Collection of the information from another source is necessary – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) To avoid prejudice to the maintenance or enforcement of the law and order; (ii) For the conduct of proceedings in any court or tribunal that have commenced or are reasonably contemplated; (iii) In the legitimate interests of national security; (iv) To maintain the legitimate interests of the data controller or of a third party to whom the information is supplied (e) Compliance would prejudice a lawful purpose of the collection; or (f) Compliance is not reasonably practicable in the circumstances of the particular case.
----	--

Purpose specification and further processing limitation

18	(1) Personal data shall be collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and shall not be further processed in a way incompatible with
----	---

	those purposes. (2) The further processing of personal information shall be compatible with the purposes of collection if – <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) The data subject has consented to the further processing of the information;(b) The information is available in a public records or has deliberately been made public by the data subject;(c) Further processing is necessary –<ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) To avoid prejudice to the maintenance of the law or enforcement of the law and order;(ii) For the conduct of proceedings in any court or tribunal that have commenced or are reasonably contemplated; or(iii) In the legitimate interests of national security;(d) The further processing of the information is necessary to prevent or mitigate a serious and imminent threat to –<ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) Public health and safety; or(ii) The life and health of the data subject or another individual;(e) The information is used for historical, statistical or research purposes and the data controller has established appropriate safeguards against the personal data being used for any other purposes.
--	--

Retention of records

19.

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), records of personal information shall not be retained any longer than a prescribed period, unless –

- (a) retention of the record is required or authorised by law;
- (b) the data controller reasonably requires the record for lawful purposes related to its functions or activities;
- (c) retention of the record is required by a contract between the parties; or
- (d) the data subject has consented to the retention of the record;

(2) Records of personal information may be retained for periods in excess of those contemplated in subsection (1) for historical, statistical or research purposes and the data controller has established appropriate safeguards against the personal data being used for any other purposes and the data controller has established appropriate safeguards against the personal data being used for any other purposes.

(3) A data controller which or who has used a record of personal information of a data subject to make a decision about the data subject shall –

- (a) retain the record for such period as may be required or prescribed by law or code or a code of conduct; or
- (b) if there is no law or code of conduct prescribing a retention period, retain the record for a period which will afford the data subject a reasonable opportunity, taking all considerations relating to the use of the personal information into account, to request access to the record.

(4) A data controller shall destroy or delete a record of personal information or de-identify it as soon as reasonably practicable after the data controller is no longer authorised to retain the record in terms of subsection (1) or (2).

(5) The destruction or deletion of a record of personal information in terms of

	subsection (4) shall be done in a manner that prevents its recon....In an intelligible form
--	--

Security measures on integrity of personal information

20.	(1) A data controller shall secure the integrity of personal information in its possession or under its control by taking appropriate, reasonable technical and authorised measures to prevent - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) loss of, damage to or unauthorised destruction of personal information; and (b) unlawful access to or processing of personal information. (2) In order to give effect to subsection (1), the data controller shall take reasonable measures to - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) identify all reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks to personal information in its possession or under its control; (b) establish and maintain appropriate safeguards against the risks identified; (c) regularly verify that the safeguards are effectively implemented; and (d) ensure that the safeguards are continually updated in response to new risks or deficiencies in previously implemented safeguards. (3) The data controller shall have due regard to generally accepted information security practices and procedures or professional rules and regulations which may apply generally or be required in the specific industry.
------------	---

Information processed by a data processor of the data controller

21.	(1) An data processor or anyone processing personal information on behalf of a data controller shall - (a) process such information only with the knowledge or authorisation of the data controller; and (b) treat personal information which comes to their knowledge as confidential and shall not disclose it, unless required by law or in the course of the performance of their duties.
-----	--

Security measures regarding information processed by a data processor

22.	(1) A data controller shall ensure that an data processor which processes personal information for or on behalf of the data controller establishes and maintains the security measures referred to in the Act. (2) The processing of personal information for a data controller by an data processor on behalf of the data controller shall be governed by by a written contract between the data processor and the data controller, which requires the data processor to establish and maintain confidentiality and security measures to ensure the integrity of the personal information. (3) Where the data processor is not domiciled or does not have its principle place of business in Lesotho, the data controller shall take reasonable steps to ensure that the data processor complies with the laws relating to the protection of personal information of the territory in which the data processor is domiciled.
-----	--

Notification of security compromises

23.	(1) Where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the personal information of a data subject has been accessed or acquired by an authorised person, the data
-----	--

controller, or any other third party processing personal information under the authority of a data controller, shall notify -

(a) the commission; and

(b) the data subject, unless the identity of such data subject cannot be established.

(2) The notification referred to in subsection (1) shall be made as soon as reasonably possible after the discovery of the compromise, taking into account the legitimate needs of law enforcement or any measures reasonably necessary to determine the scope of the compromise and to restore the integrity of the data controller's information system.

(3) The data controller shall delay notification to the data subject where the Lesotho Mounted Police Service, the National Security Service or the Commission determines that notification will impede a criminal investigation.

(4) The notification to a data subject referred to in subsection (1) shall be in writing and communicated to the data subject in one of the following ways -

(a) mailed to the data subject's last known physical or postal address;

(b) sent by e-mail to the data subject's last known e-mail address;

(c) placed in a prominent position on the website of the party responsible for notification;

(d) published in the news media; or

(e) as may be directed by the commission.

(5) A person making notification shall ensure that the notification provides sufficient information to allow the data subject to take protective measures against potential consequences of the compromise, including, if known to the data controller, the identity of the unauthorised person who may have accessed or acquired the personal information.

(6) The Commission may direct a data controller to publicise, in any manner

	specified, the fact of any compromise to the integrity or confidentiality of personal information, where the Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that the public would protect a data subject who may be affected by the compromise.
--	--

Quality of information

24.	(1) The party responsible for collecting and processing of personal information shall take reasonably practicable steps to ensure that the personal information is complete, accurate, not misleading and kept up to date where necessary. (2) In taking the steps referred to in subsection (1), the party responsible for collecting and processing of personal information shall have regard to the purpose for which personal information is collected or further processed.
-----	--

Notification to the Commission and to the data subject

25	(1) Where personal information is collected by the data controller directly from the data subject, the data controller shall take reasonable practicable steps to ensure that the data subject is aware of - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the information being collected; (b) the name and address of the data controller; (c) the purpose for which the information is being collected; (d) whether or not the supply of the information by the data subject is mandatory; (e) the consequences of failure to provide the information; (f) any law authorising or requiring the collection of the information; and
----	--

(g) any further information which is necessary having regard to the specific circumstances, such as the –

- i. recipient or category of recipients of the information;
- ii. nature or category of the information; and
- iii. existence of the right of access to and the right to rectify the information collected.

(2) The steps referred to in subsection (1) shall be taken –

- (a) before the information is collected, unless the data subject is already aware of the information under subsection (1); or
- (b) in any other case, as soon as reasonably practicable after it has been collected.

(3) A data controller which has previously taken the steps referred to in subsection (1) shall be in compliance with subsection (1) in relation to the subsequent collection from the data subject of the same information or information of the same kind if the purpose of collection of the information is unchanged.

(4) A data controller may not comply with subsection (1) where –

- (a) the data subject has provided consent for the non-compliance;
- (b) non compliance would not prejudice the legitimate interests of the data subject as set out under this Act;
- (c) non compliance is necessary –
 - i. to avoid prejudice to the maintenance or enforcement of law and order;
 - ii. to enforce a law imposing a pecuniary penalty;
 - iii. to enforce legislation concerning the collection of revenue by the state;
 - iv. for the conduct of proceedings in any court or tribunal that have been commenced or are reasonably contemplated; or

	v. in the interests of national security; (d) compliance would prejudice a lawful purpose of the collection; (e) compliance is not reasonably practicable in the circumstances of the particular case; or (f) the information shall – i. not be used in a form in which the data subject may be identified; or ii. be used for historical, statistical or research purposes. (5) A data controller shall process personal information only upon notification to the commission.
--	--

Access to and challenges of personal information

26.	(1) A data subject who provides adequate proof of identity, shall have a right to request - (a) A data controller to confirm, free of charge, whether or not the data controller holds personal information about the data subject; and (b) from a data controller, personal information about the data subject held by the data controller, including information about the identity of all third parties who have or have had, access to the information – i. within a prescribed time; ii. at a prescribed fee; iii. in a reasonable manner and format; and iv. in a form that is generally understandable. (2) Where the data controller denies a data subject a request made in terms of subsection (1) above, the data subject shall be entitled to be given written reasons for the denial.
-----	--

	(3) A data subject shall have a right to challenge the written reasons for denial or requests made in terms of subsection (1). (4) If, in accordance with subsection (1) (b), personal information is communicated to a data subject, the data subject shall be advised of the right in terms of section 27 to challenge the correctness of the information.
--	--

Correction of personal information

27.	(1) A data subject shall free of charge have a right to challenge the correctness of information by requesting that a data controller - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) correct or delete personal information about the data subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or (b) destroy or delete a record of personal information about the data subject that the data controller is no longer authorised to retain. (2) A data controller shall, on receipt of a request in terms of subsection (1), take reasonable steps to investigate the challenge lodged and - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) correct, destroy or delete the information; or (b) provide that data subject, with credible evidence in support of the correctness of the information. (3) Where credible evidence has been provided under subsection (2) (b), the data subject may apply to the Commission to investigate the disputed information. (4) Where the data controller has taken steps under subsection (2)(a) that result in a change to the information and the changed information has an impact on decisions that have been or will be taken in respect of the data subject in question, the data controller shall, within 7 working days, inform each person of
-----	--

	body or data controller party to whom the personal information has been disclosed of those steps. (5) The data controller shall notify a data subject, who has made a request in terms of subsection (1), of the outcome of the request within a period of 14 days of the making of the request.
--	--

Data controller to give effect to principles/ Accountability

28	(1) The data controller shall: (a) ensure that the principles set out under this Act and all the measures that give effect to the principles are complied with and (b) have the necessary internal mechanisms in place for demonstrating such compliance to both to data subjects and to the Commission in the exercise of its powers.
----	---

Prohibition on processing of sensitive personal information

29	Unless specifically permitted under this Act, a data controller shall not process sensitive personal information.
----	--

Exemption on data subject's race

31	(1) The prohibition on processing personal information concerning a data subject's race shall not apply if the processing is carried out to – (a) identify data subjects and only when this is essential for that
----	---

	purpose; and (b) comply with the law. (2) In the cases referred to under subsection (1), personal information shall not be supplied to third parties without the consent of the data subject.
--	--

Exemption on data subject's trade union membership

32	(1) The prohibition on processing personal information on a data subject's trade union membership, shall not apply to the processing by the trade union to which the data subject belongs or the trade union federation to which that trade union belongs, where the processing is necessary to achieve the aims of the trade union or trade union federation. (2) In the cases referred to under subsection (1), personal information shall not be supplied to third parties without the consent of the data subject.
----	--

Exemption of data subject's political affiliation

33	(1) The prohibition on processing personal information concerning a data subject's political affiliation, shall not apply to processing by an institution founded on political principles of the personal information of their members or employees or other personal belonging to the institution, if such processing is necessary to achieve the aims or principles of the institution. (2) In the cases under subsection (1), personal information shall not be supplied to third parties without the consent of the data subject.
----	---

Exemption on data subject's health or sexual life

34	(1) The prohibition on processing personal information on a data subject's health or sexual life, shall not apply to the processing by – <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) medical professionals, healthcare institutions or facilities or social services, if such processing is necessary for the proper treatment and care of the data subject, or for the administration of the institution or professional practice concerned;(b) insurance companies, medical aid scheme administrators and managed healthcare organisations, where such processing is necessary for –<ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) assessing the risk to be insured by the insurance company or covered by the medical aid scheme and the data subject has not objected to the processing(ii) the performance of an insurance or medical aid agreement; or(iii) the enforcement of any contractual rights and obligations;(c) schools, where such processing is necessary to provide special support for pupils or making special arrangements in connection with their health or sexual life;(d) institutions or probation, child protection or guardianship, where such processing is necessary for the performance of their legal duties;(e) Commissioner of Correctional Service, where such processing is necessary in connection with the implementation of prison sentences or detention measures; or
----	--

(f) administrative bodies, pension funds, employers or institutions working for them, where such processing is necessary for –

(i) the implementation of the provisions of the law, pension regulations or collective agreements which create rights dependent on health or sexual life of the data subject; or

(ii) the reintegration of or support for workers or persons entitled to benefit in connection with sickness or work incapacity.

(2) In cases under subsection (1) the information shall be processed by a data controller subject to an obligation of confidentiality by virtue of office, employment, profession or legal provision, or established by a written agreement between the data controller and the data subject/

(3) A data controller that is permitted to process information on a data subject's health or sexual life in terms of this section and is not subject to an obligation of confidentiality by virtue of office, profession or legal provision, shall treat the information as confidential, unless the responsible party is required by law or in connection with their duties to communicate the information to other parties who are authorised to process such information.

(4) The prohibition on processing any of the categories of personal information shall not apply where it is necessary to supplement the processing of personal information on a data subject's health, with a view to the proper treatment or care of the data subject.

(5) Personal information concerning inherited characteristics shall not be processed in respect of a data subject from whom the information concerned has been obtained unless –

	(a) a serious medical interest prevails; or (b) the processing is necessary for the purpose of scientific research or statistics. (6) The Commission may prescribe more detailed rules concerning the application of subsection 1(b) and (f).
--	--

Exemption on data subject's criminal behaviour

35	(7) The prohibition on processing of personal information on a data subject's criminal behaviour, shall not apply where the processing is carried out by a body charged by law with applying criminal law or by a data controller who has obtained that information in accordance with the law. (8) The prohibition shall not apply to a data controller who processes the information for their own lawful purposes to – (a) assess an application by a data subject in order to take a decision about, or provide a service to that data subject; or (b) protect their legitimate interests in relation to criminal offences which have been or can reasonably be expected to be committed against them or against persons in their service. (9) The processing of information concerning personnel in the service of the data controller shall take place in accordance with the rules established in compliance with the labour laws. (10) The prohibition on processing any of the categories of personnel information referred to in section 29(b) shall not apply where such processing is necessary to supplement the processing of information on criminal behaviour permitted under this section.
----	---

General exemption on sensitive personal information

36	(1) Without prejudice to sections 29 to 35, the prohibition on processing personal information shall not apply where – <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) processing is carried out with prior parental consent where the data subject is a child and is subject to parental control in terms of the law;(b) the processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of a right or obligation in law;(c) processing is necessary to comply with an obligation of international public law;(d) the Commission has granted authority in terms of section 37 for processing in the public interest, and appropriate guarantees have been put in place in law to protect the data subject's privacy;(e) processing is carried out with the consent of the data subject; or(f) the information has deliberately been made public by the data subject.
----	--

Authorisation by the Commission

37	(1) The Commission may authorise a data controller to process personal information, where the Commission is satisfied that, in the circumstances of the case - <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) the public interest in the processing outweighs, to a substantial degree, any interference with the privacy of the data subject that could result from such processing; or
----	--

	(b) the processing involves a clear benefit to the data subject or a third party that outweighs, to a substantial degree, any interference with the privacy of the data subject or third party that could result from such processing. (2) The public interest referred to in subsection (1)(a) includes – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the legitimate interests of State security; (b) the prevention, detection and prosecution of offences; (c) important economic and financial interests of the State or a public body; (d) fostering compliance with legal provisions established in the interests referred to under paragraphs (b) and (c); or (e) historical, statistical or research purposes and the data controller has established appropriate safeguards against the personal data being used for any other purposes. (3) The Commission may impose reasonable conditions in respect of any authorisation issued under subsection (1).
--	---

Exemption for processing of personal data for historical, statistical and research purposes

38	(1) The further processing of personal information for historical, statistical and research purposes is exempt from all of the information protection principles except – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the principle regulating security safeguards (b) the principle regulating information quality
----	---

	(2) The data controller shall establish appropriate safeguards against the use of the data for any other purpose.
--	---

PART V – ENFORCEMENT

Complaints

39	(1) A person may submit a complaint to the Commission in the prescribed manner and form – (a) alleging a contravention of this Act; or (b) if the data subject is aggrieved by the determination of a sector in terms of an approved code.
----	--

Investigation by the Commission

40	(1) The Commission, after receipt of a complaint made in terms of section 39, shall – (a) investigate any alleged contravention in the prescribed manner; (b) decide in accordance with section 41 to take no action on the complaint; (c) act, where appropriate, as conciliator in relation to any such contravention in the prescribed manner, where it appears that it might be possible to secure a settlement between the parties; and (d) take such further action as is contemplated under this Part. (2) The Commission, may, on its own initiative, commence an investigation under subsection (1).
----	--

	(3) The Commission shall, within a prescribed period, advise the complainant and the data controller to whom the complaint relates of the course of action that the Commission proposes to adopt under subsection (1).
--	---

No action by the Commission

41	(1) The Commission may, after receiving a complaint in terms of section 39, decide not to take any action if, in the Commission's opinion – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the length of time that has elapsed between the date on which the subject matter of the complaint arose and the date on which the complaint was made is such that an investigation of the complaint is no longer practicable or desirable; (b) the subject matter of the complaint is trivial; (c) the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or is not made in good faith; (d) the complainant does not desire that action be taken or continued; (e) the complainant does not have sufficient personal interest in the subject matter of the complaint; (f) the complaint relates to a matter governed by an approved code of conduct which makes provision for a complaints procedure, and the complainant has failed to use the complaints procedure as provided for in that code; or (g) the complaint relates, in whole or in part, to a matter that is more properly within the jurisdiction of another regulatory body. (2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) the Commission may in its discretion decide not to take any further action on a complaint if, in the course of the an investigation of the complaint, it appears to the Commission
----	--

	that, any further action is unnecessary or inappropriate. (3) In any case where the Commission decides to take no action, or no further action, on a complaint, the Commission shall inform the complainant of that decision and the reasons for it.
--	--

Pre-investigation by the Commission

42	Before proceeding to investigate any matter in terms of this Part, the Commission shall inform the complainant and the data controller to whom the investigation relates of the – (a) the details of the subject matter of the investigation; and (b) right of the data controller to submit to the Commission, within 14 days, a written response in relation to the subject-matter of the investigation.
----	---

Investigation proceedings of the Commission

43	(1) For the purpose of the investigation of a complaint, the Commission may – (a) summon and enforce the appearance of persons before the Commission and compel them to give oral or written evidence on oath and to produce any records and things that the Commission considers necessary to enable it to investigate the complaint; (b) administer oaths; (c) receive and accept any evidence and other information whether on oath, by affidavit or otherwise, that the Commission deems fit, whether or not it is or would be admissible in a court of law;
----	--

	(d) apply to the Magistrate Court for a warrant to enter and search the premises if there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that this Act has been contravened or an offence committed and evidence of that contravention or offence is to be found on the premises specified. (2) A warrant issued under subsection 1(d) shall be an authority for the Commission or any of its officers or staff, at any time within seven days of the date of issuing of the warrant to enter the premises as identified in the warrant and to search them, inspect, examine, operate and test any equipment found there which is used or intended to be used for the processing of personal information and to inspect and seize any record, material or equipment found there which may be used as evidence. (3) A magistrate shall not issue a warrant under subsection (1)(d) unless the occupier has been notified by the Commission of the application for the warrant and has had an opportunity of being heard on the question whether the warrant should be issued.
--	--

Matters exempt from search and seizure

44	(1) Where the Commission has authorised the processing of personal information, the information is not subject to search and seizure . (2) All privileged information is exempt from search and seizure.
----	--

Parties to be informed of developments during and results of the investigation

45	(1) If the Commission makes an investigation following a complaint, and – (a) the Commission finds that no contravention of this Act has taken
----	--

	place; (b) the Commission finds that a contravention has taken place; (c) an enforcement notice is served in terms of section 46; (d) a served enforcement notice is cancelled in terms of section 47; (e) an appeal is lodged against the enforcement notice for cancellation or variation of the notice in terms of section 48; or (f) an appeal against an enforcement notice is allowed, the notice is submitted or the appeal is dismissed, the Commission shall inform the complainant and the data controller in the manner prescribed of any development and the result of that investigation within a prescribed period.
--	---

Enforcement notice

46	(1) Where the Commission is satisfied that a data controller has contravened this Act, the Commission shall serve the data controller with an enforcement notice requiring the data controller to do either or both of the following – (a) to take specified steps within a period specified in the notice, or to refrain from taking action; or (b) to stop processing personal information specified in the notice, or to stop processing personal information for a purpose or in a manner specified in the notice within a period specified in the notice. (2) An enforcement notice shall include – (a) a statement indicating the nature of the contravention; (b) the right to appeal.
----	---

Cancellation of an enforcement notice

47	(1) A data controller on whom an enforcement notice has been served may, at any time after the expiry of the period during which an appeal may be brought against that notice, apply in writing to the Commission for the cancellation or variation of that notice on the ground that, by reason of a change of circumstances, all or any of the provisions of that notice need not be complied with, in order to ensure compliance with this Act. (2) If the Commission considers that all or any of the provisions of an enforcement notice need not be complied with in order to ensure compliance with this Act, it may cancel or vary the notice by written notice to the party on whom it is served.
----	--

Reviews and appeals

48	(1) A data controller on whom an enforcement notice has been served, may, within 30 days of receiving the notice, apply to a court having competent jurisdiction for the setting aside or variation of the notice. (2) A complainant, who has been informed of the result of the investigation may, within 30 days of receiving the result, appeal to the Magistrate Court having jurisdiction against the result of the investigation.
----	---

Civil remedies

49	A data subject may institute a civil action for damages in a court having jurisdiction against a data controller for breach of any provision of this Act.
----	---

PART VI – GENERAL PROVISIONS

Unsolicited electronic communications

50	(1) In this section “direct marketing” means communication by whatever means of any advertising or marketing material which is directed to particular data subjects. (2) A data subject is entitled any time by notice to a data controller to require the data controller to cease, or not to begin, processing of personal data in respect of which he is the data subject for the purposes of direct marketing. (3) If the Commission is satisfied, on the application of any person who has given notice under subsection (2) that the data controller has failed to comply with the notice, the Commission may order the data controller to take such steps for complying with the notice as the Commission thinks fit.
----	---

Automated decision making

51	(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person may not be subjected to a decision which has legal effect on him, or which affects him significantly, based solely on the automated processing of personal information intended to provide a profile of certain aspects of his personality or personal habits/ (2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply where the decision – (a) has been taken in connection with the conclusion or performance of
----	--

	a contract, and <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the request of the data subject in terms of the data contract has been met; or (ii) appropriate measures have been taken to protect the data subject's legitimate interests such as requiring a data controller to provide a data subject with sufficient information about the decision to enable him to make representations and allowing a data subject to make representations about a decision referred to in subsection (1); or (b) is governed by a law or code in which appropriate measures are specified for protecting the legitimate interests of data subjects.
--	---

Notifications

53	(1) A data controller shall notify the Commission of the processing of personal information to which the Act applies (2) The notification contemplated in section (1) shall contain the following particulars – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the name and address of the data controller; (b) the purpose of the processing; (c) a description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto; (d) the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
----	--

	(e) planned trans-border flow of personal information; and (f) a general description allowing a preliminary assessment of the suitability of the information security measures to be implemented by the data controller to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the information which is to be processed. (3) Subject to subsection (4), a data controller shall give notice each time personal information is received or processed. (4) Changes in the name and address of the data controller shall be notified within one week, and changes to the notification which concern subsection 2(b) to (f) shall be notified within one year of the previous notification, if they are of more than incidental importance. (5) Any processing which departs from that which has been notified in accordance with the provisions of subsection 2(b) to 2(f) shall be recorded and kept for at least three years. (6) The Commission may – (a) prescribe more detailed rules concerning the procedure for submitting notifications; and (b) by notice exempt certain categories of information processing which are unlikely to infringe the legitimate interests of a data subject from the notification requirements referred to in this section. (7) The Commission shall maintain an up-to-date register of the information processing notified to it.
--	--

Codes of conduct

54	(1) The Commission may, from time to time, issue, approve, amend or revoke a
----	--

	code of conduct. (2) A code of conduct shall incorporate measures that give effect to all information protection principles, given the particular features of the sector or sectors of society in which the relevant data controller is operating. (3) A code of conduct may apply in relation to any one or more of the following – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) specified information or class of information; (b) specified body or class of bodies; (4) The Commission shall ascertain, among other things, whether the draft code of conducts submitted to it are in accordance with this law. If it sees fit, the Commission shall seek the views of data subjects or their representatives
--	---

Offences and penalties

55	A person who <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) hinders, obstructs or unlawfully influences the Commission or any person acting on behalf of or under the direction of the Commission in the performance of the Commissioner’s duties and functions under this Act; (b) breaches rules of confidentiality made under this Act; (c) intentionally and unlawfully obstructs a person in the execution of a warrant issued under this Ac; (d) fails, without reasonable cause, to give a person executing a warrant assistance as he may reasonably require for the execution of the warrant; (e) violates any provisions of this Act or regulations made under this
----	---

	Act, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction to a fine not exceeding M50 000.00 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 5 years or to both and if the offender is a juristic person the sentence shall be served by the head of the data controller.
--	--

Regulations

56	The Minister may, on the recommendations of the Commission, make regulations generally for the purpose of giving effect to this Act.
----	--

Transitional arrangements

57	(1) Any person, who at the commencement date of this Act, is processing any personal information shall, within two years of such data, bring such processing into conformity with this Act and notify the Commission in terms of section 53. (2) The period of two years referred to in subsection (1) may be extended by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette to a maximum of three years.
----	--

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS

58	The head of a data controller may, subject to this Act , by order, designate one or more officers or employees to be Data Protection Officers of that controller to exercise, discharge or perform any of the power, duties or functions of the head of the data controller under this Act that are specified in the order.
----	---

59	Subject to the exhaustion of the appeal offered through the Commission under this law, the data subject shall be entitled to pursue legal appeals with the relevant judicial authorities.
60	The law maker shall set up a class action system to assist of the data subject in the exercise of their rights set up under this law.
61	(1) For the regulation of whistleblowing: (a) The Commission shall establish rules giving the authorization for and governing the whistleblowing system. (b) These rules must preserve: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the principles of fairness, lawfulness and purpose of the processing; (ii) the principles related to the proportionality as the limitation of the scope, accuracy of the data which will be processed; (iii) the principle of openness with delivering an adequate collective and individual information on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the scope and purpose of the whistleblowing; • the processing of reporting; • the consequences of the justified and unjustified reporting; • the way of exercising the rights of access, to rectification, deletion as well as the competent authority to which a request can be made; • the third party which may receive personal data concerning the informer and the person who is implicated in the scope of the processing of the reporting (for example the internal audit service if the "manager of the reporting" needs to verify some points). The person who is implicated shall be informed as soon as possible by the manager

	to whom such person reports of the existence of the reporting and about the facts which he/he is accused for in order to exercise the rights under this law including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the technical and organizational rules; ii. rules concerning the rights of the data subject by making clear that the right of access doesn't allow to access to personal data linked to a third person without his/her express and written consent; and iii. the rules of notification to the Commission.
62	(1) The Commission may impose a warning to a data controller failing to comply with the obligations of this law, such warning shall be regarded as a sanction. (2) In case of serious and immediate violation of the individual rights and liberties, the Commission may rule, in summary proceedings: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the limitation or ceasing of the personal data processing; or <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (b) the temporary or definitive access to some personal data processed; or <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (c) the temporary or definitive processing not compliant with the provisions of this law.

PART VIII

TRANSBORDER FLOW OF PERSONAL INFORMATION OUTSIDE LESOTHO

63 To a recipient in a Member State that has transposed the SADC data protection requirements

Personal information shall only be transferred to recipients in a Member State that has transposed the SADC data protection requirements:

- (a) where the recipient establishes that the data is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or pursuant to the lawful functions of a data controller, or
- (b) where the recipient establishes the necessity of having the data transferred and there is no reason to assume that the data subject's legitimate interests might be prejudiced by the transfer or the processing in the Member State.

(2)The controller shall, notwithstanding 1 above, be required to make a provisional evaluation of the necessity for the transfer of the data.

(3)The recipient shall ensure that the necessity for the transfer of the data can be subsequently verified.

(4)The data controller shall ensure that the recipient shall process the personal information only for the purposes for which they were transferred.

64 To a Member state that has not transposed the Personal information shall only be transferred to recipients, other than in Member States of the SADC, or which are not subject to national law adopted pursuant to the SADC data protection requirements, if an adequate level of protection is ensured in the country of the recipient

SADC data protection requirements or to a non-Member State and the data is transferred solely to permit processing otherwise authorised to be undertaken by the controller.

(2)The adequacy of the level of protection afforded by the relevant third country in question shall be assessed in the light of all the circumstances surrounding the relevant data transfer(s), particular consideration shall be given to the nature of the data, the purpose and duration of the proposed processing, the recipient's country, the relevant laws in force in the third country and the professional rules and security measures which are complied with in that recipient's country.

(3)The Commission shall establish the categories of processing for which and the circumstances in which the transfer of personal information to countries outside (i) Lesotho and (ii) SADC is not authorized.

(4)By way of derogation from (3) above, a transfer or a set of transfers of personal information to a recipient in a country outside Lesotho or SADC which does not ensure an adequate level of protection may take place in one of the following cases:

- (a) the data subject has unambiguously given his/her consent to the proposed transfer;
- (b) the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between the data subject and the controller or the implementation of precontractual measures taken in response to the data subject's request;
- (c) the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded or to be concluded between the controller and a third party in the interest of the data subject;

(d) the transfer is necessary or legally required on important public interest grounds, or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims;

(e) the transfer is necessary in order to protect the legitimate interests of the data subject; and

(f) the transfer is made from a register which, according to acts or regulations, is intended to provide information to the public and which is open to consultation either by the public in general or by any person who can demonstrate a legitimate interest, to the extent that the conditions laid down in law for consultation are fulfilled in the case at hand.

(5) Without prejudice to the provisions of the previous paragraph, the Commissioner may authorize a transfer or a set of transfers of personal information to a recipient country outside Lesotho or SADC which does not in its laws ensure an adequate level of protection, if the controller satisfies the Commissioner that it shall ensure adequate safeguards with respect to the protection of privacy and fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subjects concerned, and regarding the exercise of the data subject's rights such safeguards can be appropriated through adequate legal and security measures and contractual clauses in particular.

